- 3.0. NO-FAULT. FAULT shall not be considered, only compliance with the EO and the terms of this WARRANTY.

WARRANTY ADJUSTMENT is determined so that RENTER may receive credit for and full benefit of all ERRORS ALLOWANCE and OFFSETS given, even if at a later date, plus a cash refund for any ERRORS exceeding that amount. RENTER is solely responsible for weather related damages, liabilities and costs and shall have insurance against all-risks of liability, damage and loss, unless RENTER becomes an additional insured on AEG's CGLI policy AND purchases the CDW waiver. For any item actually used the maximum adjustment is 20% of the rental (and in the case of quality issues, limited to any published grade cost differences: ie: the difference in cost between a grade B tent and a grade C tent is 10%) and 10% of the EXPENDED LABOR if less labor was required. Delivery costs are not considered or adjustable. At no time shall a greater adjustment be considered and any demand for 100% adjustment shall be a FALSE ACTION and in DEFAULT. Warranty adjustments apply only to ERRORS for which AEG is responsible under the contract and determined as follows:
  - 4.1. LINE ITEM LOSS shall be determined by dividing the hours of lost use by the days an item is rented divided by 24-hours per day. This number is then multiplied by the "total rental all days" shown on the EO. Expended labor must be paid for regardless of timing however UNEXPENDED LABOR may be included as a LOSS; then,
  - 4.2. TOTAL ITEM LOSS is determined by adding all LINE ITEM LOSSES together; next,

  - 4.4. ECREDIT issued will be the TOTAL ITEM LOSS less the REFUND TOTAL. An ECREDIT is a future event credit and standard minimums apply after application.
  - 4.5. BONUS ECREDIT. An additional 20% of the REFUND TOTAL is to be added to any ECREDIT as a voluntary bonus when EMERGENCY BASIS did not exist. This percentage does not apply to ECREDIT total.
- 5.0. NON-USE ADJUSTMENT. Any item(s) contracted but not used and not otherwise covered herein shall be deemed cancelled pursuant to POLICY-CC. A no-fault warranty adjustment shall be available by ECREDIT only for the rental cost less cancellation fee, 50% of the preparation and any UNEXPENDED LABOR cost. Delivery is not adjustable. Future event must meet all minimums (after ECREDIT application).
- 6.0. RENTER is responsible for: (6.1) ESITE and ACCESS thereto; (6.2) ESITE SECURITY; (6.3) PARTICIPANTS; (6.4) UTILITIES; (6.5) the products, services and labor of RENTER, subcontractors or others; (6.6) all damage or loss to PROPERTY and ESITE except as may be covered by a purchased damage waiver or otherwise expressly specified in the EO; (6.7) immediate notice to AEG by DEFNOTICE upon any RSSL deficiency, failure or loss; and (6.8) all other items and efforts specified as RENTER responsibility in the EO.

Should specific item documentation not be available, a general determination shall be made by AEG based on RENTER input and no challenge to this determination is reviewable. Standard rental grades are A, BA, B and C with a 5% cost difference between each grade level unless otherwise specified in POLICY-SOP. The total percent difference in grade contracted and grade determined shall be used instead of EVT in calculating LINE ITEM LOSS. The most recent version of POLICY-SOP prior to event shall be used, as it may have changed. ONLY the cost difference in grade shall be considered in any adjustment for a claim that a lower grade was received. RENTER must provide photographic evidence of the full (entire) item(s) being claimed as lower grade before any adjustment can be calculated or considered. Only the full (entire) item shall be considered in determining grade and it is understood individual sections or small portions of the full item may be of lower grade without changing the full item's overall grade.
- 10.0. WEATHER. RENTER is solely responsible for any and all weather related damages, liabilities and costs. No performance, wind or weather rating is offered or warranted for tents, staging or any other structure. No HVAC warranty or temperature rating is offered or warranted for heating, cooling or water systems with cleartop tents specifically excluded due to the greenhouse effect they cause. RENTER understands that additional cooling of 50% or more may be required for a cleartop tent compared to a standard white top tent. No claim of faulty or defective installation shall be valid unless supported by a DEFNOTICE report, written in the ERRORS and OMISSION box on the DELIVERY CONFIRMATION of the EO or by CLAIM DOCUMENTATION as given herein and such notice shall be given prior to conclusion of installation so that opportunity for immediate correction prior to the beginning of the rental period is provided. RENTER is solely responsible for such inspection and notice of deficiency or accepts items as-is, where-is. RENTER shall have insurance against all-risks of liability, damage and loss, unless RENTER becomes an additional insured on AEG's GLI policy AND purchases the CDW waiver. #### ADDITIONAL INFORMATION (not part of POLICY-WARRANTY)

Some errors in any event must be expected. These are usually are minor or not even viewable expected event conditions. Know your equipment --- most non-reviewable claims are for items one "imagined" differently. Follow the due diligence required by the contract and actually look at the equipment in the warehouse before your event. Warranty claims occur in about 1 in 20 events and in 1 out of about 200 events does a warranty claim exceed the ERRORS ALLOWANCE and OFFSETS given upfront. Keep in mind and event is the attempting to quickly build then remove a large area of entertainment and services. The goal is to keep them minor and infrequent. AEG designs its orders so that you are protected upfront. If you have no issues (as in 95% of the cases) the OFFSETS given are a nice cost-reducing bonus. If you have to use the OFFSETS you still get a future event credit so you get to take advantage of the bonus later.
